

TERMS AND CONDITIONS – CRITEO SERVICE

These Terms and Conditions and Country Schedule (“Terms”) are between Criteo SA and the Client and apply to the provision of the Criteo Service. Criteo SA enters these Terms on behalf of itself and other Criteo affiliates, some of whom may provide certain services and invoicing as further detailed in these Terms.

1-Definitions and Interpretation

Agreement	means these Terms and associated Insertion Order placed by the Client.
Aggregated Client Data	means data collected by Criteo for the purpose of providing the Service for the Client that can no longer be linked to the Client i.e. Client Data that does not identify or permit identification of a client.
Banner	means any ad promoting the products and/or services of the Client, which will be optimised by the Criteo Technology.
Client Content	means images, graphics, text, data, links or other creative elements supplied by the Client to Criteo (by data feed or otherwise) for inclusion in Banners.
Client Data	means data that Criteo collects through Criteo tags on the Client’s properties which includes any information that can be attributed to a user via cookies or other technologies that record events related to users’ activity on Client’s properties (such as the number of pages viewed, the products the user viewed, user searches).
Criteo Data	means data related to the Criteo ad serving activity such as the number of ads displayed to users and aggregated client data that does not identify or permit identification of a client.
Criteo Network	means a network of publishers on supported interactive properties whose identity is unknown to the Client and administered at the sole discretion of Criteo for display of Banners.
Criteo Service or Service	means the service chosen by the Client in the Insertion Order.
Criteo Sourced Data	means aggregated data provided by third parties independently of the provision of the Criteo Service to the Client and may include publisher data.
Criteo Technology	means Criteo’s performance display advertising technology allowing it to serve the right ad to the right user at the right time.
Cross-Devices Linking	means the action of associating of two or more browsers and/or applications/devices, used, or likely used, by the same user.
Data	means Client Data, Criteo Data and Criteo Sourced Data.
Insertion Order	means a Client order which indicates the type of service chosen, the duration of the Service, the budget, the price and any other particular condition.
Target Audience	means users on the Criteo Network who will be targeted with relevant performance advertising banners based on the Criteo Technology.

2-Setting up the Service: The Client will comply with the technical requirements and specifications of the Criteo Service together with any other requirements and specifications Criteo may specify in writing from time to time, for example in respect of providing and improving other Criteo products and services which the Client may be interested in receiving. These technical specifications may include the following operations: (i) including software code, tags and cookies supplied by Criteo on the Client’s properties (including on its websites and, if applicable, email newsletters); (ii) supplying Criteo with catalogue files of the Client’s products and/or services to be included in Banners; and (iii) supplying Criteo with the Client’s logos and other Client Content to be displayed in Banners. The Client shall be solely liable for performing these operations. Criteo does not warrant any dates (if any) stated in the Insertion Order. When setting up an advertising campaign the Client shall select the Target Audience for the campaign which shall determine the Criteo affiliate that delivers the Criteo Service. Multiple campaigns may be delivered by multiple Criteo affiliates. Furthermore, the Client shall comply at all times with Criteo's policies that include its privacy policy and advertising guidelines <http://www.criteo.com/en/legal/terms-and-conditions-criteo-service>. The Client acknowledges that these policies may be updated from time to time to reflect Criteo's practices and new products/services. In the event of any material change to these policies, Criteo shall communicate these changes in advance. Criteo has a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics available on its corporate website.

3-Banner Display: The Client acknowledges and accepts that the Banners are displayed on the Criteo Network and that Criteo has an absolute discretion as to where (and how often) the Banners will be displayed and how priority is to be governed between different clients. The Client acknowledges that Banners may be displayed next to banners of its direct or indirect competitors. Criteo reserves the right to make changes to the Criteo Technology and/or to cease or not commence display of Banners without notice or compensation to the Client. Criteo uses commercially reasonable efforts not to display Banners on websites or other media that are of pornographic, defamatory, obscene or illegal nature. In the event Client notifies Criteo in writing that Banners are being displayed on such media, Criteo will promptly remove the Banners.

4- Measurements and Performance Report: Criteo measures, through its servers, the number of impressions and/or clicks and/or other metrics necessary for calculating the charges under the Agreement. The Client accepts that Criteo's measurements are final and shall prevail over any other measurements. Criteo grants the Client access to an online interface to access statistics on a daily basis and control its account. Statistics are updated with a maximum delay of 48 hours. Any modifications made and approved (either by the Client or upon the Client's instruction) –including, but not limited to, budget adjustments or pausing a campaign, are solely the Client's responsibility and the Client shall be liable for any costs incurred as a result of modifications. The Client gives permission for Criteo to make modifications on its behalf in accordance with any specific instructions communicated in writing (including, but not limited to, CPC ranges, minimums and maximums and key campaign outcomes). Furthermore, the Client is responsible for the use and storage of its personal and confidential password and ID and shall immediately notify Criteo in writing of any loss or involuntary disclosure thereof.

5-Invoicing and Payment: The Client minimum investment (if applicable) for setting up the Criteo Service is defined in the Insertion Order. Criteo retains the right, in its sole discretion, to request prepayment from a Client, as specified in the Insertion Order. The Criteo Service will be charged on the basis in the Insertion Order and will include the cost of the Criteo Service. The Client will receive monthly invoices from the Criteo entity delivering the Criteo Service. In the event that there are multiple ad campaigns, Criteo shall provide multiple invoices in different currencies. Criteo does not guarantee that the budget set up in the Insertion Order will be reached. Unless specified otherwise in the Country Schedule or Insertion Order, the Client shall pay all amounts due, without set-off, within 30 days from the invoice date. All payments to Criteo shall be made in the currency of the invoice, and are quoted exclusive of any applicable tax which shall be payable at the time and in the manner required by law. Criteo shall be entitled to charge interest and recovery costs on overdue amounts as specified by the relevant law or as set out in the Insertion Order. Any claim on the invoice can only be raised within one month of receipt. Unless stated otherwise in the Insertion Order, all invoices shall be payable solely by the Client.

6-Intellectual Property: Each Party remains sole owner of the intellectual property rights it owned prior to the execution of the Agreement. Criteo is the sole owner of all intellectual property rights in and to the Criteo Technology and Criteo Data. Client is the sole owner of all intellectual property rights in and to the Client Data. The Client authorizes Criteo: (i) to collect, use, analyze and process the Client Data, to combine the Client Data with Criteo Data and Criteo Sourced Data and to perform the Service for the Client; (ii) to improve Criteo Technology, Criteo Service and other Criteo products, programs and/or services, including, for example, Criteo's email marketing service, with Aggregated Client Data; and (iii) to disclose Client Data if required by law. For the duration of the Agreement, the Client grants Criteo (including Criteo affiliates) a worldwide, royalty-free, non-transferable license to use, reproduce and represent the Client trademarks and logos, and to display, reproduce, represent the Client Content of the Banners: (a) on the Criteo Network; (b) on all documentation promoting the Criteo Service. Criteo shall seek prior authorization from the Client for any press release using the Client's name, logos and/or trademarks. The Client shall not modify or attempt to modify the code or otherwise reverse engineer or create derivative works of any aspect of the Criteo Technology.

7-Warranties and indemnities: Except as set out in this clause, Criteo gives no warranty or condition, express or implied, with respect to any matter and, in particular, but without limitation, expressly disclaims any warranties or conditions of non-infringement or the quality or fitness for any particular purpose of the Criteo Technology, the Criteo Network or any Service provided under the Agreement. The Client warrants and represents to Criteo that: (i) it has the right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and perform its obligations as set out herein; (ii) it has the right to provide the Client Content to Criteo for publication, without infringing any rights of any third party including, without limitation, intellectual property rights; (iii) the Client Content complies at all times with all applicable laws, statutes, statutory instruments, contracts, regulations, advertising and marketing codes of practice in any of the jurisdictions where Banners are displayed; (iv) the Client Content does not contain any material that is obscene, defamatory or contrary to any applicable law or regulations and does not give access via hyperlinks to any property containing material that is obscene, defamatory or contrary to any applicable law or regulation; (v) it shall not provide any personal data, via its data feed or otherwise, pursuant to applicable data protection laws; (vi) any information provided under the Agreement is true, accurate, complete and current; and (vii) it shall comply with all relevant laws and regulations including any guidelines or policies as made available by Criteo. The Client shall defend, indemnify, and hold Criteo harmless from and against any third-party suit, proceeding, assertions, damages (direct or indirect), cost, liability, and expenses (including court costs and legal fees), incurred as a result of any breach of this clause 7 or of any claim which if true would be a breach of this clause.

8-Liability: To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, neither party shall be liable for any special, indirect, incidental, consequential, punitive or exemplary damages in connection with the Agreement, even if said party has been advised of the possibility of such damages. Neither party shall have any liability for any failure or delay resulting from any event, beyond the reasonable control of that party including, without limitation fire, flood, insurrection, war, terrorism, earthquake, power failure, civil unrest, explosion, embargo, strike (force majeure event). Client acknowledges and accepts that the price paid by Client takes into account the risks involved in this transaction and this represents a fair allocation of risk. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement excludes or limits either Party's liability for fraud, gross negligence, death or personal injury or any other matter to the extent such exclusion or limitation would be unlawful. Save for the indemnity in clause 7 above, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, each Parties' liability under the Agreement, for whatever cause, whether in contract or in tort, or otherwise, will be limited to general/direct money damages and shall not exceed the amount corresponding to the last 6 months invoiced to the Client.

The Client acknowledges and accepts the risk that third parties may generate impressions, clicks or other actions affecting the charges under the Agreement for fraudulent or improper purposes. Criteo shall have no responsibility or liability to the Client in connection with any third party click fraud or other improper actions that may occur.

9-Privacy: The Client acknowledges and accepts it will include said code and tags on its properties (including, if requested in writing by Criteo or specified in the technical specifications referred to in clause 2 above, on its email newsletters and websites). Any data received by Criteo via said tags will be used for performing the Criteo Services, enhancing the Criteo Technology and/or providing and improving any other Criteo products or services which the Client may be interested in receiving from time to time. Criteo will collect and use such data in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, including but not limited to laws governing privacy and data protection. The Client undertakes to include on its properties (i) a privacy policy that includes a link to the Criteo privacy policy and when legally compulsory (ii) appropriate notice and choice mechanisms that comply with relevant laws and regulations. When notices are legally required they should indicate prominently to users (i) that by continuing to browse on Client properties, they consent to cookie (or other tracking technologies) dropping for the purpose of serving targeted advertising; and (ii) allow users to learn more and object to Criteo's Services. When applicable, the Client undertakes to disclose that data may be collected and or shared with Criteo for Cross Device Linking purposes. Each Banner will include a link to Criteo's Privacy Policy page (www.criteo.com/us/privacy-policy) that will include information for users on how to disable Criteo Service (and insert an "opt-out" link).

10-Term and Termination: The Agreement shall apply as from the date of the Insertion Order and shall expire (i) on the date stated in the Insertion Order; or (ii) on the date when the total budget chosen by the Client (and as set out in the Insertion Order) is exhausted. Without prejudice to any other rights and remedies, either Party may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect by written notice to the other Party: (a) if the other commits a material breach of any of its obligations under the Agreement and in the case of a remediable breach, fails to remedy it within seven (7) days of the date of receipt of notice from the other specifying the breach and requiring it to be remedied; or (b) on the occurrence of a force majeure event that has continued for a minimum period of two months; (c) to the extent permitted by applicable law in the event that either Party becomes insolvent, goes into liquidation, appoints an administrative receiver or analogous proceedings under relevant local law. Expiration or termination (for any reason) of the Agreement shall not affect any accrued rights or liabilities which either Party may then have nor shall it affect any clause which is expressly or by implication intended to continue in force after expiration or termination.

11-Confidentiality: Each Party undertakes that it will not at any time disclose to any person not explicitly mentioned in this Agreement, except its professional representatives or advisors or as may be required by law or any legal or regulatory authority, the terms and conditions of this Agreement or any confidential information concerning the business or affairs of the other Party (including the other Party's affiliates) which is disclosed to it by the other Party. If such disclosure is required by law or any legal or regulatory authority, the Party required by the authority shall give the other Party written notice of such disclosure as soon as possible prior to making the disclosure and upon request, shall assist the other Party in obtaining a protective order or other relief.

12-No Assignment: The Client shall not without Criteo's prior written consent assign at law or in equity, sub-license or deal in any other manner with the Agreement or any rights under the Agreement, or sub-contract any or all of its obligations under the Agreement or purport to do any of the same.

13-Miscellaneous

- (i) Criteo reserves the right to modify the Terms at any time. The Terms are effective as soon as they are available online at the following link: <http://www.criteo.com/en/legal/terms-and-conditions-criteo-service>. They shall automatically apply to each Insertion Order or Insertion Order renewal concluded after the modifications.
- (ii) Unless specified otherwise in the Country Schedule, this Agreement shall be governed by French law and the Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Paris in respect of any dispute or matter arising out of or connected with the Agreement.
- (iii) The Agreement may be amended only by a written agreement executed by an authorized representative of each Party. The Parties acknowledge and accept that electronic format shall be deemed an acceptable means of communication for the execution or sending of an Insertion Order or to modify the terms of an Insertion Order including its renewal. All notices will be addressed to the contact information set forth in the Insertion Order executed between the Parties.
- (iv) The Client's placing of an Insertion Order implies full acceptance by the Client of the Terms notwithstanding any term to the contrary that may be contained in any of the Client's documentation, in particular in any purchase order. The Terms and each Insertion Order, constitute the Agreement. If there is any contradiction between the Terms and Insertion Orders, the Insertion Orders shall take precedence in relation to the Criteo Service.
- (v) The Agreement constitutes the complete and entire agreement between the parties and shall supersede any and all other prior understandings, commitments, representations or agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties.
- (vi) If any provision of the Agreement shall be found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or enforceability shall no effect the other provisions of the Agreement which shall remain in full force an effect.
- (vii) This Agreement is available in various different language versions. However, in the event of any dispute between different language versions of these Terms the English language version shall prevail.
- (viii) In no event will any delay, failure or omission (in whole or in part) in enforcing, exercising or pursuing any right, power, privilege, claim or remedy conferred by or arising under the Agreement or by law, be deemed to be or construed as a waiver of that or any other right, so as to bar the enforcement of that, or any other right, power privilege, claim or remedy, in any other instance at any time or times subsequently.
- (ix) Unless specified otherwise in the Agreement, no third party shall have any rights or obligation under the Agreement.

Country Schedule

If there is any contradiction between the Terms and Conditions and this Country Schedule, the Country Schedule shall take precedence in relation to the Criteo Service.

The Criteo entity that provides the Criteo Service under the Agreement shall depend upon the audience selected by the Client. Said Criteo entity shall also provide invoices to Client in accordance with clause 5 and shall bear all related risks and obligations. Criteo SA does not perform business development or commercial negotiations with the Client. Each local Criteo entity, as may be relevant, gives a mandate to Criteo SA to conclude the Agreement on their behalf.
